

Governor's Daily News Summary

January 31, 2001

<http://www.clarionledger.com/>

City, state offer to finance hockey arena

2 officials oppose baiting deer start for 2001 season |

Nissan supplier interest high

87 water systems fail to report

Hurdle to teacher pay stays

Georgia decides to fly new flag

Timber industry seeks aid

Editorials

Vouchers misrepresented: only 'tool' for better education

Newspaper: Move or create own flag

Don't let lawmakers exploit your funds

Why didn't gaming help education?

Vote on symbols will only divide us

www.wjtv.com

Musgrove Rolls Up Sleeves with Habitat Plan

www.ajc.com

Journal editorial

Georgians

The South

<http://web.sunherald.com>

County pay raises advance

MDOT overhaul likely to stall

Effort to free teacher raises fails

Governor signs bill delaying redistricting

Can Chrysler survive new money crisis?

Editorial: Energy policy must address exploration and consumption

www.djournal.com

Major bills face key legislative deadline today

BOBBY HARRISON: 'Whiskey Speech' doesn't assuage flag issue

www.gomemphis.com

Georgia lawmakers OK flag with smaller rebel symbol

House panel OK's revamp of state's Transportation Department

<http://www.natchezdemocrat.com/>

Local leaders prepare for Musgrove meeting

<http://www.enterprise-journal.com/>

Editorials for Tuesday, Jan. 30, 2001

<http://www.usatoday.com/>

Ga. shrinks rebel symbol Redesign of state's flag could head off an economic boycott

Calif. uses more public money to buy power